

Answer all questions

Time: 01 hr

1.
 - (a). List possible ecosystems, which are found in the coastal zones of Sri Lanka.
 - (b). Explain the importance of one of the ecosystems listed in (a) in an ecological point of view.
 - (c). Briefly explain possible approaches to conserve and manage such ecosystem from man-made disturbances.

2. Explain the following statements.
 - (a). "Montane and coastal plant communities share some common morphological features".
 - (b). "Multi-species should be selected when designing restoration projects".
 - (c). "Agroforestry is an ideal form of land use pattern".
 - (d). "Unplanned coastal exploitation exacerbated the effect of Tsunami".